Saint Mary Armenian Apostolic Church presents

FIRST ANNUAL GOLF TOURNAMENT

September 17, 2025

Upper Unionville Golf Club
11207 Kennedy Road

Rooted in Faith, Growing Through Community

In 1979, Toronto's Armenian Community Centre and A.R.S. Day School were opened in Toronto. The Catholicosate of the Great House of Cilicia had no Armenian Church situated in Toronto. After a petition in 1983, approval to found a new church was given by the Prelacy of Canada and Eastern United States under the blessings of His Holiness Karekin II, Catholicos of the Great House of Cilicia (then Karekin I of All Armenians) and under the direction of His Eminence Archbishop Mesrob Ashjian.

Following the establishment of St. Mary's Armenian Apostolic Church, Right Rev. Fr. Khajag Hagopian was appointed as its first Parish Priest. During this time, weekly Divine Liturgy was celebrated at St. Augustine of Canterbury Anglican Church located at Bayview & Eglinton.

In 1987, the Blessing of the Foundation Ceremony was held. On May 27th, 1990, the newly built building was blessed and consecrated officially naming the church St. Mary Armenian Apostolic Church. Divine Liturgy was then celebrated for the first time.

In the spring of 2012 the church was heavily renovated Under the Auspices of then Prelate of Canada, Archbishop Khajag Hagopian.

Over the past 35 years of establishment, the number of the Armenian community increasingly grew. That said, we've celebrated more than two thousand five hundred Divine Liturgies, conducted more than three thousand services, baptized over a thousand children, wedded more than a thousand couples all in the name of our Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.
